The Society's Exhibition Gigondas 2013

Produced exclusively for us by Louis Barruol of Château Saint-Cosme, this Gigondas needed some time in our cellars, but has woken up in style! Showing sweet-and-sour cherry and dried redcurrant from the grenache and beautifully rich, savoury spice and pepper from the syrah, this is stunning now but will age gracefully yet.

Gigondas, Hominis Fides, Chateau Saint-Cosme 2014

This is a Gigondas made from 100% grenache and aged in oak and from very old vines planted on limestone. This is one of the top wines from this famous Rhône estate, powerful but balanced with a few years under its belt, which is good now but will reward some more time in bottle.

Gigondas, Le Poste, Château de Saint Cosme 2014

Louis Barruol likens this superb Rhône red to a great nebbiolo, at least on the basis that the soils are curiously similar to the region of Italy in which nebbiolo is most at home. It is, though, made from grenache planted quite high up and fully south-facing, and is very ripe, dramatic and for the long haul.
