Half bottle of Miles Mossop 'Max', Stellenbosch 2013

A classy cabernet-led South African 'Bordeaux blend', with merlot and petit verdot, from one of the stars of the Cape. The plump and generous fruit of this top vintage is complemented by a hint of spice and fine tannin structure.

| | | | |

Vasco and The Explorers Verdelho, Western Cape 2018

Being in the right place at the right time allowed us to pick up this exclusive South African parcel. It's made by Nederburg's award-winning winemaking team and was too small to merit one of their stand-alone bottlings but too good to be blended away! A fantastic one-off from one of the Cape's top producers. Juicy, fresh and just a little bit creamy from the Portuguese grape, verdhelho (which Vasco da Gama did not take to the Cape!)

'Dirt Track' Reserve Selection Syrah-Grenache, Coastal 2018

A new addition to the Dirt Track range made by maverick New Wave duo Duncan Savage and Adi Badenhorst, two of South Africa's best winemakers. Hearing it was surplus to requirements for their joint label, we allowed ourselves to be seduced by its easy charm and light touch and snapped it up!

Touraine Cabernet, Domaine de la Renaudie 2017

Cabernet franc tends to be lighter in the Loire's Touraine region, typically with a sprinkling of spice and earthiness to the flavour, but here with the plump, fresh berry fruit of the vintage.

Celler del Roure Cullerot Blanco, Valencia 2018

Highly individual Spanish white made in an artisan way from grape varieties on the edge of extinction - grapes like verdil and merseguera which we hadn't even heard of! This combines these with Pedro Ximenez, macabeo and others to create a wine that is nutty, smooth and plump, and that pushes the boundaries yet remains eminently drinkable.

Blind Spot Barossa Valley Montepulciano Blend 2018

A delicious example of the endless enthusiasm and experimentation displayed by Aussie winemakers - notably Mac Forbes who seeks out special parcels of grapes for blending into this flagship range, which is exclusive to us. Here the montepulciano grape is blended with grenache and mataro and lovingly vinified in the Barossa valley, resulting in wonderfully generous and aromatic fruit and a lick of sweet spice.

Tobelos Blanco, Rioja 2018

This bowled our buyer and head of wine Pierre Mansour over on his recent visit to Rioja. Adriana Laucirica, the new winemaker at Tobelos, has crafted a beautiful white Rioja which is perfumed, peachy and plump, with just a hint of oak. 80% viura, 10% garnacha and a touch of sauvignon to cleverly lift the aromatics.

Adega de Colares Chão Rijo, Lisboa 2016

Made by the team at the Adega de Colares, this is different from the traditional Colares reds, yet shares their fragrant, structured and refreshing aroma and taste profile. This blend of local grape castelão (80%) with tinta roriz (the same grape as Spain's tempranillo) has been matured in oak barrels for a year to moderate the acidity and tannins but without masking the wine's fruit and fragrance. A versatile Portuguese food wine, but Italian and other Mediterranean flavours should be spot on.

Niedermenniger Riesling Kabinett, von Kesselstatt 2018

The Saar does maddening loops among the vines so that the Niedermenniger Herrenberg runs in parallel to the Scharzhofberger. It's the source of this steely, racy and citrusy wine, which has just a touch of sweetness.

Koyle Cerro Basalto Cuartel G2 Carmenère 2017

From a cool spot for Chilean carmenère, this is a ripe yet fresh and eminently drinkable wine with aspects reminiscent of Saint-Emilion. The hillside site produces low yields so the wine is concentrated but not in a syrupy way, and it has lovely length and freshness. The 15% cabernet franc in the blend emphasizes the cedary, lead pencil notes.

The Society's Exhibition Alto Maipo Cabernet Sauvignon 2018

Cabernet sauvignon thrives in the Alto Maipo's warm, alluvial, gravelly soils formed by the Maipo River. The climate is moderated by the high altitude and the cool nighttime air that descends from the nearby Andes producing a fine, firm and linear style rather than 'fruit bombs'. This bottling assembles wines from two of the Alto Maipo's greatest communes. 76% is from Pirque, which brings elegance and length of flavour, and 24% from Puente Alto, which fills out the mid-palate with its ripe, blackcurrant-scented fruit. It was matured in barrels for 16 months to develop exquisite cedary aromas and silky tannins and was made exclusively for us by Chilean producer Concha y Toro's outstanding winemaker, Ignacio Recabarren.

Corbières Blanc Cuvée Prestige, Château Ollieux-Romanis 2016

The Corbières hills are better known for red wines yet whites can prosper here too, taking full advantage of cool breezes that dampen the vine's ardour. Rhône varieties such as marsanne and roussanne do well here and this has Rhône-like richness and weight.

The Society's Exhibition Gigondas 2013

Produced exclusively for us by Louis Barruol of Château Saint-Cosme, this Gigondas needed some time in our cellars, but has woken up in style! Showing sweet-and-sour cherry and dried redcurrant from the grenache and beautifully rich, savoury spice and pepper from the syrah, this is stunning now but will age gracefully yet.

Villard Grand Vin Le Pinot Noir Casablanca 2018

Pure, black-cherry scented Chilean pinot with a fine, fresh silky palate. Matured in 83% small 5,000-litre foudres and 17% 300-litre barrels. This allows the tannins to soften while preserving the fruit and avoiding marking it with oak.

Magnum of Rainer Wess Grüner Veltliner, Kremstal 2018

The only thing better than grüner veltliner is a magnum of grüner veltliner, so we asked Rainer Wess to bottle some of his delicious stone-fruit and spice-driven grüner especially for us. This dry, focused and refreshing Austrian white is the perfect bottle for sharing and makes an impressive centrepiece.

Ebner-Ebenauer Alte Reben St Laurent, Weinviertel 2015

This gloriously bright, vibrant and silky Austrian red is made by one of the world's most exciting female winemakers, Marion Ebner, using St. Laurent grapes from 70-year-old vines. There is balsamic strawberry with pepper and beautiful freshness on the palate, and this is charmingly upfront yet refined and complex.

Gewurztraminer 'Roche Roulée', Domaine Zind-Humbrecht 2017

Zind-Humbrecht is one of the great names of Alsace, and in the tiny-yielding 2017 vintage this dry gewurz is especially rich, intense and spicy, with remarkable length. For all its heady complexity and texture, it is still an elegant and clean-cut wine, not to mention an absolute joy to drink.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Blanc, Château Mont-Redon 2017

This famous estate sits on top of the eponymous plateau in a sea of large, rounded stones and produces one of the best whites in Châteauneuf, in a style that owes nothing to oak. Dry, full-flavoured, herby and long on the finish - try it with linguini with clams!

Languedoc Blanc, Château La Sauvageonne, Gérard Bertrand 2016

This comes from an estate that is as far from anywhere as it is possible to get in this part of the Languedoc, up in the hills behind Sète. It was bought by retired rugby player, Gérard Bertand and transformed. The wine, a blend of grenache, vermentino and viognier shows finesse, depth of flavour and real class.

Corbières Le 3 de Castelmaure 2015

This comes from what is without doubt one of the best co-operatives in France, small enough to be managed like a large domaine and capable of focusing on quality. Rich, spicy and round, this is full yet beautifully balanced and refined, and benefits from some very well-judged barrel ageing.

| | | | |

Domaine Nicolas Perrault, Maranges Premier Cru Clos des Loyères 2017

This lovely red Burgundy is from Clos de Loyères, perhaps the finest of the premiers crus of Maranges, made with fruit from vines planted in 1973. 18 months' barrel ageing has led to ripe sweet tannins and plush fruit.

Saint-Joseph Rouge, Domaine du Tunnel 2014

Stéphane Robert is best known for his whites from Saint-Péray but his reds are also very appealing. This Saint-Joseph has soft, bright fruit, spice and a lovely balance between fruit and oak.

| | | | |
|---------------------|---------------|-----------------------|----------------|
| Product Code | RH42961 | Dominant Grape | Syrah/Shiraz |

Crozes-Hermitage Domaine de Thalabert, Paul Jaboulet Aîné 2013

Wonderful, classy and celebrated Rhône syrah. Dense, concentrated and dark with lots of ripe black fruit, but also an uplifting freshness. The oak too is well judged and the stock of barrels from Château La Lagune in Bordeaux (which is under the same ownership as Jaboulet) is being replaced by larger 500-litre casks which tend to favour fruit flavours more. Superb wine.

Domaine Chanson, Beaune Premier Cru Clos des Mouches 2012

Chanson are a company on the rise making some of the best Beaunes around. Ripe and sweet centered with a floral hint from the whole-bunch vinification, this is excellent red Burgundy.

Maison Roche de Bellene, Meursault Chevaliers 2016

Chevaliers is one of Meursault's 'deuxièmes crus', a village Meursault but planted on the sloping hillside which produces more concentrated and fresher-tasting wines than those on the flatter lands. Like an apple baked with butter, this is a lovely amalgam of richness and freshness.

Rivesaltes, Domaine de Rancy 1965 50cl

This old Vin Doux from deep in the south of France has spent 50 years in barrel before eventually being bottled. Of a lovely tawny colour, this is very concentrated with piercing freshness, rather like an old Madeira. Absolutely perfect for sipping and savouring.
